About Us

The School: Pinelands Music School began in 2015, Since that time the music school became very popular and have strived to provide the best individual music tuition in Brisbane and South East Queensland. We believe that everyone can play music, and we want to make playing music a daily event for the majority of Australians.

Our staff: We go to great lengths to find highly trained and motivated staff to work as Mentors at Pinelands Music School. Our staff are all players, not just teachers, so they can offer our Clients a wealth of practical experience.

Meet Our Teachers

Our director: Mika Williams taught music classes several years from her home. She became very popular due to her passion for music and love for teaching. She started to receive really good and dedicated students whom she cannot provide adequate services few hours a day from home. She decided to open a music school "Pinelands Music School" that also became quite popular within short time.
